Coaches Education

Union Coach program year 1

Become a Union Coach: meetings to align with the core mentality

This series of meetings are practice. They give a training into the one correct attitude or mentality, or however you'd want to say it, that coaches will need to have to be able to help clients on the one correct way towards their Union & Mission i.e. their consciousness state of Harmonious Union and Golden Flow.

The basic action Union Coaches (or however we'll eventually decide it needs to be called) need to be able to do is do the KEY exercise version 1 and version 2 with their clients in a 1on1 appointment. But there is an even more foundational element to all of it: having the right kind of beingness (or mentality or attitude) when they meet with a client. From this, the success of everything else follows.

The process you bring a client in, is overwhelmingly steered by the consciousness of Union, that comes from Divine Mother through the teacher, which is Petra. This means that even when Petra would never meet with the client, they get the eventual consciousness shift via and from her, and she would know when it happened for whom even without physical communication. It does mean that a coach should be in good standing with her at all times.

Additionally, one can choose a specialty as coach, develop it over time, and add approaches that one feels good about that are in alignment with the main line of healing that is provided here.

The 10 meetings are practical and will involve being shown and taught, plus experiencing passing it on. But the fact that this is all mainly practical, does not mean there is nothing to say about it, and therefore there still is a theory and workbook per meeting. Additionally, elements can be advised to study that are not necessarily inside the course or inside TFAN as such; they might need to be bought and their value will contribute to your own and your future clients benefit.

Here is the list of meetings and their themes:

- 0 Intro
- 1 Acceptance of homecoming
- 2 Gratitude for obstacles
- 3 Faith in Union & Mission
- 4 Making steps
- 5 Surrendering the process
- 6 Divine takeover
- 7 Mental flush and build up
- 8 Heart to heart relating
- 9 Healed communication

These themes are to be combined with the Creative Leadership values:

- 1 Letting go to come into your Bloom in a natural way
- 2 Prosperity in the Moment

- 3 Surrender to the Bigger Whole
- 4 Insight in what does not Work and letting that go
- 5 Understanding for myself and in that way also for others
- 6 Compassion in action so that your work contributes to the love of others
- 7 Love for your Self
- 8 Focus on the work that will bring love for the long term
- 9 Silence the inner so that you amend to the inside and towards the other
- 10 Share from the moment without passing yourself
- 11 Bearing fruit from a real growth and giving space for that
- 12 Being yourself in all Circumstances

The meaning of these leadership values are explained in this video: <https://youtu.be/sY33-un5Ugc>

The themes itself are taken from the Ultimate Strategy, energy work following the 9 energy points of the Creative ID method, in the Course Code Magic of 123456789 transformed into 128493756. You'll find the explanation of what this refers to in the book 'Twin Flames: Manifest your Abundant life of Love', specifically for the way the themes of the meetings are set up on page 280-82, where I explain 9 steps that can be taken inside this number code that exponentially grows your spiritual transformation. This means indeed, that coaches will exponentially make themselves grow, contributing to their own Union & Mission process, so they get more capacity to also assist others along the way.

The topics will thus among others be about: Getting to the relieving clarity that one is on their definitive way home. Gratitude for obstacles, so you can see through challenges and go to the real meat of happiness. Faith in Union & Mission, to increase your capacity to receive real value in your actual life. Making steps inside a spiritual process is an art in itself and it will made insightful for you what exactly that means.

You'll learn more about and step deeper into the necessary surrendering of the whole the process. This way, you'll become a welcoming steward of the Divine takeover that is awaiting you. A mental flush and build up follows that is truly beneficial. As the crown on top of all the work you'll learn heart to heart relating and healed communication inside of that.

A second parallel course is added to what coaches need to learn and it innovatively combines the story and explanation of the Christ Masters that make accessible the very Source that is here for Twin Flame Union & Mission, with the very fact that coaches will need to learn to communicate. Where the practical coaches meetings are geared towards beingness first to then have a foundation to take action, this part of the course focusses on the relational and communication aspect of it.

Taking into account that coaches will also need to start their working practice on an autonomous ground, they will also need to start up a flow of marketing to attract clients that are also... buyers. Marketing is a professional way of exactly that: relationship and communication. Both are in essence the exact same and need to become connected to the right consciousness. Thus the stories of how I got to the Christ Masters are laced with communication exercises that aim to bring it to life for uniquely you.
